This information pertains to one of the Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)'s Knowledge Co-Creation Program (Long-Term). This handout gives information on the overview of the program.

This program will be implemented as part of the Official Development Assistance of the Government of Japan based on bilateral agreement between both governments.

The objective of the Knowledge Co-Creation Program (Long-Term) is to offer opportunities to people from developing countries to study at higher educational institutions in Japan and to help them build networks. This is intended to assist in the human resource development plans of the governments of developing countries and Japan, and eventually to expand and strengthen bilateral ties between the developing countries and Japan.

Each country may have its own schedule and/or qualifications for the program.

With regard to the additional information, please contact JICA overseas office in your country.

0. Background

JICA Knowledge Co-Creation Program (KCCP)

The Japanese Cabinet released the Development Cooperation Charter in February 2015, which stated, “In its development cooperation, Japan has maintained the spirit of jointly creating things that suit partner countries while respecting ownership, intentions and intrinsic characteristics of the country concerned based on a field-oriented approach through dialogue and collaboration. It has also maintained the approach of building reciprocal relationships with developing countries in which both sides learn from each other and grow and develop together.” JICA believes that this ‘Knowledge Co-Creation Program’ will serve as a foundation of mutual learning process.

JICA Development Studies Program (JICA-DSP)

JICA-DSP is being carried out by JICA as part of official development assistance (ODA) by the government of Japan. JICA-DSP is offered for international scholars accepted as the participants of JICA’s Human Resource Development Project who are enrolled in a degree program at a Japanese university.

I. Overview

The proper functioning of legal and judicial systems is the foundation for a society where people can live with ease of mind. At the same time, it is one of the core elements of nation-building as well as economic development.

For autonomous and sustainable development of legal and judicial sector, it is crucial to have core human resources who understand laws well and are able to enforce them based on a proper legal mind.

JICA has been supporting legal and judicial human resources in Bangladesh. Considering the growing needs for development of such human resources, JICA is now accelerating its activities in this area through collaboration with Japanese universities, aiming to help developing countries retain more trained human resources in their countries.

II. Objectives

1. Overall Goal

To help improve the legal and judicial systems, which leads to the development of the society and the economy and the respect for human rights.

2. Program Purpose

To enhance the capacity for improving legal and judicial systems through master's course in Japanese universities, in close collaboration with Japan's technical cooperation project for legal and judicial development.

3. Outputs

- 1) To acquire the capacity to conduct comparative study of laws including Japanese laws.
- 2) To acquire the capacity to propose and apply the result of comparative studies to the legal and judicial system of respective countries.
- 3) To complete all the requirements to obtain the set degree within the given period of time.

III. Program Outline

The program for JFY 2023 consists of the acceptance of government officials in the legal and judicial sectors from Bangladesh, Cambodia, Indonesia, Lao P.D.R, Mongolia, and Vietnam.

The participants are expected to meet all the requirements to obtain a master's degree within the given period of time. After the completion of the program, the participants are expected to contribute to the achievement of the overall goals and impacts of JICA's technical cooperation projects in the target country by continuously participating in the activities of JICA's technical cooperation projects as members of counterparts or the project staffs. In the long-term, this program aims to develop human resources who will become a part of the leadership of the target country to lead the legal and judicial reforms, and will contribute to the development of the legal education in the future.

An applicant from Bangladesh who is chosen as a candidate as result of the selection at JICA (see IX (2)) may select a university, to which he/she wishes to apply, from the universities listed in the Annex 1.

To be selected as a participant of this program, the candidate must be accepted by the Japanese university to which he/she applies.

During the master's course in the university, the Participant is expected to regularly report the progress of his/her study to JICA.

IV. Duration

Approximately two (2) years

*Maximum two and a half years if the candidates are admitted to the universities initially as research students (whose term may last up to six months) and later as regular students (whose term may last up to two years).

In case the candidates are admitted as research students, they are requested to pass an entrance examination to become regular students during their term as research students in accordance with the regulations of the universities. If they fail the examination, the program will be terminated and the students must immediately return to their home countries.
